THE COURTS.

In the United States District Court yesterday, in e matter of Louis H. Rosey, a bankrupt, Judge tchford decided that the United States is entised to prove a debt in respect to so much of the int of its claim, set forth in its proof of debt, as es not consist of any costs of the suit which had een brought in the United States Circuit Court to recover from Rosey certain penalties under the nue law. The Judge also holds that the inted States is entitled to a priority or preference charged with the murder of the Chevalier Bois de Bianco, at Brussels, Belgium, was resumed yesterbefore Commissioner Kenneth G. White. The arther reading of the depositions was waived by counsel for prisoner. The case has been adjourned

In the Justh divorce case the referee's report s confirmed by the Court. A decree of divorce is nted Mrs. Justh. She is awarded the care of he two girls, and Mr. Justh is appointed the guardian of the boy. By the intervention of utual friends this amicable arrangement has been arrived at with no doubt as much pleasure to the parties, most deeply concerned, as to their

BANK DEFALCATIONS AND FORGE-

The Atlantic National Bank-Application to Declare the Bank an Involuntary

Yesterday an application was made to Judge latchford, in the United States District Court, on the part of some of the creditors of the Atlantic National Bank, for an order calling on the officers f the bank to show cause why the bank should of the bank to show cause why the bank should not be adjudicated an involuntary bankrupt, and an assignee appointed to collect and distribute the assets of the establissment among its creditors.

This application was resisted on the ground that a receiver of the bank had been already appointed by the Comptroller of the Currency, who now held the assets of the bank with a view to the settlement of its affairs, and that, under the bankruptcy law of the United States, there was no jurisdiction in the Court over a case of this character, especially as the Comptroller of the Currency had exclusive power to take possession of and wind up the affairs of an insolvent national bank. Judge Blatchiord, for the sake of form, granted the order, stating that he did not believe the Bankruptcy Court had jurisdiction of a case of this character. The order was made returnable immediately, for the purpose of having an appeal taken to the Circuit Court to decide the question of jurisdiction.

The Bank of England Forgery—Case of

The Bank of England Forgery-Case of George McDonnell-Further Examination of the Accused.

The further examination of George McDonnell. who is charged with complicity in the alleged cands upon the Bank of England, was resumed esterday before Commissioner Joseph Gutman, at als office in Nassau street.

Mr. T. F. Marbury and Mr. Charles M. Da Costa ppeared as counsel, the former for the British government and the latter for the Bank of Engd, and Mr. Brooke for the prisoner. Mr. Archibald, the British Consul, was also pres-

Counsel for the prisoner expressed a desire to cross-examine Mr. Archibald. This was objected to by Mr. Da Costa, unless counsel called Mr. Archibald as his own witness. The Commissioner held that counsel for the prisoner had the right to prose-examine Mr. Archibald.

Mr. Brooke then proceeded to cross-examine Mr. Archibald. The latter stated that he had made the complaint in this case upon certified and authenticated copies of the warrant from the Lord Mayor of London, Sir S. H. Water-low, charging the prisoner with the alleged forgeries, and upon the amdavits and depositions which had accompanied those warrants: these degeries, and upon the affidavits and depositions which had accompanied those warrants; these depositions and affidavits set forth the particulars of the accusation against the prisoner; he received them on the 22d of April; before that time he had learned something of the nature of the case by telegraph, on the 17th of March, and also by communication from the solicitor of the Bank of England.

munication from the solicitor of the Bank of Engiand.

Mr. Brook contended that the proceedings had not been based upon the original depositions on which the warrant was issued. Before this proceeding had been commenced another had been had upon the original warrant. He claimed that only one warrant could be issued, and that the warrant in this case was not the original one.
The Commissioner ruled that the warrant of the Lord Mayor of London, upon which the present proceeding was based, was the original one.
Mr. Brook then offered in evidence the entire record of the previous proceeding.
This was objected to by Mr. Da Costa.
The Commissioner admitted the warrant in evisence.

A long legal argument was then gone into by Mr. Brooke for the purpose of showing the construction of the law of 1848 and 1890 with reference to extradition cases. He also put in a series of objections to the various depositions that had been affered in evidence on the part of the prosecution. The Commissioner sustained some of these objections and disallowed others.

The case was further adjourned.

BUSINESS IN THE OTHER COURTS.

SUPREME COURT-CHAMBERS.

The Road from 155th Street to Harlem River.

Application was made yesterday to tax the bill of costs of Messrs. William C. Traphagan, John McClave and Frederick Seaver, appointed some time since by Judge Braderick seaver, appointed some time since by Judge Brader for opening the public drive from 155th street to Harlem River. Assistant Corporation Counsel Andrews pronounced the bill, amounting to $33,555, a most reasonable one, as the road to be constructed its some four inites long. As there was no q; position Judge Fancher allowed the bill as submitted.

The Justh Divorce Case.

The referee, Mr. Samuel E. Reed, appointed in This case, made his report yesterday. Judge Pancher confirmed the report and granted Mrs. Justh a decree of divorce on the facts presented to him. The result is that Mrs. Justh takes charge of two children, girls, while Mr. Justh takes control and guardianship of the boy. The case has been thus settled by the intervention of the irlends of both parties, who were naturally averse to the merits of the charge and counter charge being made a matter of any further publicity. Mr. Justh, on the recommendation of his friends, abandoned the case, and the lady herself, equally well advised, no doubt, accepted the conditions with regard to the main point, the care of her children. Mrs. Justh makes no claim for alimony, thereby making the settlement more easy, bringing it to the amica, le conclusion noted above. this case, made his report yesterday. Judge

THE NATIONAL RIPLE ASSOCIATION.

The National Rifle Association held a special meeting at 194 Ercadway yesterday afternoon for meeting at 194 Eroadway yesterday alternoon for the purpose of hearing the report of the Committee on Range in regard to the opening and the arrange-ments they had made for it. Air. Wingate, chair-man of the committee, read a report in which the 6th day of June was mentioned as the opening day, with the provise that Governor Dix be dis-engaged on that day, and, if this Excellency is un-able to attend, a day will be appointed for his accommodiation.

able to attend, a day will be appointed for his accommodation.

It was decided to invite the militia of Connectiont, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New York to participate in the matches, to the victors of which andsome gold badges are to be presented. A special train will be chartered to convey the invited guests to the camp on Long Island, and the time of starting will be stated in the invitations, which are ordered to be printed.

CITY HALL 'AFFAIRS.

Some of the Rumors that Were Let Loose Yesterday-The Fire Commissioners and Commissioners of Build-

The City Hall was a grand gossiping ground yesterday, and outside of the Mayor's office there seemed to be little else than gossiping going on. The Micawber family was to the front as usual, and a large crowd of the under strata of politicians was present also; but there was little of note transpiring. Nothing "turned up" for the one class, and the other class didn't make much headway either. Nearly all the Aldermen were around, and they kept their counsels pretty closely-that is, if they had any to keep. Nobody will ever again accuse this Board of Aldermen of getting up a "combination." They are too innocent and good to do it in the first place, and too limber in the second place, to keep it up if they had it. Most of them called on the Mayor during the day and had brief interviews with the man who brought them strangely to terms. If it were not a disrespectful and tainted appellation, Mayor Havemeyer might well be called "The Boss." The Mayor was extremely busy yesterday and was obliged to refuse andience to many of those who had called to see him. It was his last day in which to perfect the remaining nominations, and he wanted most of his time to himself. There are now to be nominated four Commissioners of Police, three Park Commissioners, a City Chamberlain, two Commissioners of Accounts—the latter offices being new and provided for by the new charter—and five City Marshals. There is also a Board of ten Police Justices to be appointed under the new bill, which received the Governor's approval yesterday, but there is no limit of time within which they are to be nominated.

There is considerable dissatisfaction expressed in promiseuous gatherings of men about the Hall at the removal from the Board of Pire Commissioners of General Shaler, who is looked upon at large as the man who did the most to periect the Department. With the remainder of the nominations sent in to the Board on Friday there is little fault found. Of course, there are growlers, who desire to be appointed themselves and who will growl at any other nominations, but the masses of the people think that, although the nominees are, with scarcely an exception, entirely new men, they will prove efficient and capable officers if confirmed.

The new Board of Fire Commissioners and the Mayor was extremely busy yesterday and was will prove efficient and capable officers if confirmed.

The new Board of Fire Commissioners and the Commissioner of Buildings, Walter W. Adams, appeared before the Mayor yesterday and qualified.

There was a mere rumor aftoat yesterday that Thomas A. Ledwith will probably be one of the new Police Commissioners, but there is only a faint possibility of the rumor being correctly founded. It is much more likely that he will be retained in the new deal of Folice Justices, though that is only conjecture. Assemblyman Bernard Biglin called upon the Mayor yesterday and remained with him for a short time, and a report gained some currency that he was likely to be named as a Police Justice. He is not a lawyer, however, and that fact may be very largely considered by the Mayor in making up his list.

Young notified to hold an inquest on the body.
